Mayor’s Presentations, Appointments & Re-Appointments:

- * Arbor Day Proclamation

Arbor Day

WHEREAS, in 1872 J. Sterling Morton proposed to the Nebraska Board of Agriculture that a special day be set aside for the planting of trees; and

WHEREAS, this holiday called Arbor Day was first observed with the planting of more than a million trees in Nebraska; and

WHEREAS, Arbor Day is now observed throughout the nation and the world; and

WHEREAS, The Tree City USA program sponsored by The National Arbor Day Foundation provides direction, technical assistance, public attention and national recognition for urban and community forestry programs in thousands of towns and cities that more than 93 million Americans call home; and

WHEREAS, The City of Washington has been a “Tree City for the past 17 years; and

WHEREAS, Trees can reduce the erosion of our precious topsoil by wind and water, cut heating and cooling costs, moderate the temperature, clean the air, produce oxygen and provide habitat for wildlife; and

WHEREAS, Trees are a renewable resource giving us paper, wood for our homes, fuel for our fires and countless other wood products; and

WHEREAS, Trees in our City increase property values, enhance the economic vitality of business areas and beautify our community; and

WHEREAS, Trees wherever they are planted are a source of joy and spiritual renewal.

NOW, THEREFORE, I Sandy Lucy, Mayor of the City of Washington do hereby proclaim April 23, 2022 as Arbor Day in the City of Washington and urge all our citizens to support efforts to protect our trees and woodlands and to support our City's Urban Forestry Program by planting trees to gladden the heart and promote the wellbeing of present and future generations.

Sandy Lucy

Mayor of Washington, Missouri

* National Public Safety Telecommunicators Week Proclamation

National Public Safety

Telecommunicators Week

April 10-16, 2022

Whereas, emergencies can occur at any time that require police, fire or emergency medical services; and

Whereas, when an emergency occurs the prompt response of police officers, firefighters and paramedics is critical to the protection of life and preservation of property; and

Whereas, the safety of our police officers and firefighters is dependent upon the quality and accuracy of information obtained from citizens who telephone the Washington Communications Center; and

Whereas, Public Safety Telecommunicators are the first and most critical contact our citizens have with emergency services and are the single vital link for our police officers and firefighters by monitoring their activities by radio, providing them information and insuring their safety; and

Whereas, Public Safety Telecommunicators of the City of Washington have contributed substantially to the apprehension of criminals, suppression of fires and treatment of patients; and

Whereas, each dispatcher has exhibited compassion, understanding and professionalism during the performance of their job in the past year.

Now Therefore, I, Sandy Lucy, Mayor of the City of Washington, Missouri, do hereby proclaim April 10-16, 2022, as Telecommunicators Week in the City of Washington, Franklin County, Missouri in honor of the men and women whose diligence and professionalism keep our city and citizens safe.

In Witness Whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Seal of the City of Washington, Missouri this 4th day of April, 2022.

Sandy Lucy

Mayor of Washington, Missouri

*Communications Director Lisa Moffitt introduced Jennifer Brune as the new Communications Director effective May 3, 2022.

* POW-MIA City Proclamation

POW-MIA CITYSM Recognition

WHEREAS, the City of Washington in the state of Missouri remains resolute that no American Serviceman or Servicewoman who can be recovered shall be knowingly left behind on the field of battle; and

WHEREAS, the City of Washington holds with highest regards the sacrifices made by all American Prisoners of War (POWs) who surrendered their freedom and endured great hardships in the defense of American Liberties and Values; and

WHEREAS, on the date of this printing the number of American Missing in Action (MIAs) from all U.S. Wars stands at 81,674; and

WHEREAS, the people of the City of Washington hold dear the sacrifice of all American Servicemen and Women who have given their lives with specific attention by this Proclamation to those whose whereabouts still remain unknown; and

WHEREAS, the City of Washington recognizes the POW-MIA Flag designed by Newt Heisley in 1972 as the symbol of our Nation's concern and commitment to resolving as fully as possible the fates of Americans still prisoner, missing, and unaccounted for from all U.S. Wars, thus ending the uncertainty for their Families and the Nation by finally providing closure; and

WHEREAS, the homes and businesses of the City of Washington are encouraged to display the POW-MIA Flag when practical and appropriate in conjunction with the flag of the United States; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of the City of Washington with somber appreciation extend their gratitude to all POW/MIA Family Members who continue to carry the burden of their personal loss and offer encouragements that the fate and location of their missing loved-ones will be made known again.

NOW, THEREFORE, by majority consent the Jefferson Barracks POW-MIA Museum Board of Directors does hereby proclaim the City of Washington as a "POW-MIA CitySM" and encourages the citizens of the City of Washington to continue showing their appreciation for the sacrifices made by our Nation's POWs, and MIAs, along with their Families in the defense of American liberties and values.

In witness whereof, this 17th day of September, 2021.

Paul Dillon, President

JEFFERSON BARRACKS POW-MIA MUSEUM
