

Recreational Co-Ed Volleyball Rules

Team that is due to referee must arrive 5 minutes prior to the game and must supply his or her own whistle.

If the team scheduled to referee does not show up, that team will pay the person who referees $12.00 (amounts to $2 per team member). Payment must be made to the substitute referee prior to the following week's games. If not paid, the team in question will have to forfeit their games.

GAME TIME IS FORFEIT TIME! No grace period. All teams must show up for their scheduled game time. If a team does not show up – Forfeit. If both teams do not show up – double forfeit.

All games are Rally scoring to 25. 27 points maximum.

No rotation prior to the first serve of each game.

There must be a minimum of 4 players to start the game. There must be 2 players of each sex when playing with 4 players.

Teams will not have to honor the ghost position. When playing with 5 players, there must always be 3 in the front row for rotational purposes.

Full-time players will be allowed to play for another team.

Serve may be set/net serve good.

Blockers may block over the net to defend against attack. But a blocker may not disrupt normal play across the net.

Only front line players may block or attack the net.

No ball play below the waist

Dead ball: A ball is dead when it hits the ground or when ref blows the whistle.

Unsportsmanlike conduct will not be tolerated. Official's decision is final. Arguing, cursing, abusive or threatening language or actions are considered unsportsmanlike. Player may be removed from the match, the playing area, and or the facility at the discrepancy of the referee.

All teams are asked to adhere to personal honesty policy
